discover. Early Childhood

Flexible Learning

- Ever dreamt of doing a degree?
- Ever thought it could be done in only TWO years?
- This may be for you...

The intensive TWO year degree is delivered on evenings and weekends allowing students to remain in work and study.

It involves the study of early childhood and explores areas linked to:

- human development
- well-being
- play
- outdoor learning
- creativity
- inclusion
- sustainability and global citizenship

This is a new and exciting opportunity developed by the School of Early Childhood, allowing students to gain a full degree in less time than traditional three year degrees. The School has over ten years of experience providing flexible learning programmes.
